

Panel Pro

Designed for cutting Boiler Tube Panels and removing Membrane

The "Panel Pro" air powered panel saw and track system attaches to a boiler tube panel using three weld tabs to mount the track. It makes both horizontal and vertical cuts.

After completing a horizontal cut, simply remove the saw, rotate it 90° and reinstall it on the track for vertical cuts.

The Wachs Panel Pro is faster and safer than torch cutting and there is no heat effected zone or rework needed before end prepping with Wachs Boiler Head Prep Guns.
